NARRATIVE:

Jarvis, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include possess/mfg/sell dangerous weapons, carry loaded firearm in public, grand theft auto, carry concealed weapon in vehicle, burglary, felon in possession of a firearm, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, violation of firearm restrictions, possession of control substance for sale, possession of marijuana for sale, burglary, obstruct public officer, and several violations of parole. Jarvis has served multiple state prison terms the longest a five (5) year term for possession of control substance for sale. Jarvis, was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 03, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jarvis qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of marijuana for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact…
